
Mark Black

Mark Black has been active in Scouting since 1981. In addition to his leadership in Cub Scout Pack Committee and Boy Scout Troop Committee, Mark has helped guide and counsel virtually all of the Eagle Scouts in Troop 72 since 1989. Each of his three sons have achieved the rank of Eagle Scout while in Troop 72; Kyle- December 1994, Ryan-April 1998, and Loren-January 2002.

In addition to these many activities, Mark always sets aside time to fulfill his "personal obligation" as a member in his church, Immanuel Community Reformed, Lansing, Michigan. He has faithfully served numerous times as a Deacon and an Elder on the church consistory, helping to lead and govern the church.

Along with Eagle Scout, Mark has also achieved membership in the Order of the Arrow, completing his Ordeal in 2000. Mark also finds time to volunteer at numerous school events throughout the academic year and volunteer in classroom activities whenever the opportunity presents itself. He also took it upon himself to maintain the landscaping at the local elementary school.

With all of his "personal obligations", he still finds time to be a husband, a father and a friend.

Christopher Cook

During the past 8 years, Chris has been active in many facets of Boy Scouts. He has been active in the OA as a Guide for Induction weekends, a Chapter Adviser, a service corps member for the 2006 National Order of the Arrow Conference ,and he has helped with many OA Ceremonies. For his dedication to the Order of the Arrow, he was bestowed with their highest award, the Vigil Honor, in 2004.

Chris is no less active in his district. He revived the Migisins District Winter Klondike Derby, is the current Scoutmaster of Troop 520, and a past Migisins District Round Table Commissioner.

Chris stresses the importance of living the ideals of scouting to the youth of Troop 520, and strives to live his life in the same manner. He is always willing to give instruction or to help in any way possible, whether it is transportation, obtaining and delivering supplies, or just listening to his scouts concerns and offering advice.

For all of his hard work in Scouting, Chris has been awarded Eagle Scout (1968), Boy Scout of the Year-Troop 520 (1969), District Award of Merit (2001), and was a part of the prestigious Wood Badge Fox patrol (2001).

Outside of Scouting, Chris is husband to Cindy, and the father of four. Chris is a member of the Clinton County Arts Council Board, and Project Supervisor of Clinton Northern Railway Museum. He is also active in his church, Duplain Church of God, and is a member of the modern church music group, Band of Sheep.

Linda Vergamini

Linda Vergamini makes it her mission to be an active Scouter, no matter where she is. She began as a Den Leader in Council Bluffs, Iowa in 1982 and spent the next 7 years aiding their council. Soon after leaving Council Bluffs, she moved to Storm Lake, Iowa where she spent the next 5 years serving as a Member of the District Committee, the District Training Team, and a volunteer staff member for many of the council camps, among other positions.

After completing her tenure in Iowa, Linda moved to Morris, Illinois, where she resumed her training positions, became the Lead Camp Visitation Specialist, and helped to create 5 new units as a New Unit Organizer.

In 2000, Linda became a part of the Chief Okemos Council where she lent us her expertise in the fields of Training and Day Camp. Since 2000, she has given her time as an Assistant Cook for the Council Annual Meeting at Camp Kiwanis. She has also been a Council BALOO Coordinator, a member of the Ojibwas District Committee, and Cub Scout Roundtable Commissioner. Linda has also spent many other valuable hours as a scouting volunteer and has also chaired the Council Pow Wow for the last three years.

In addition to her many Scouting activities, Linda has been active in the various churches that she and her family have attended when they moved from community to community. She has been a board member, a choir member, and recently completed four years as the Financial Secretary of Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Lansing. Furthermore, she has been the Secretary for the Chief Okemos Sportsman's Club and currently serves as their Treasurer.

Although Linda is kept extremely busy with her career as a Realtor with Century 21 Hometown, and volunteering, she still has time for her husband, Bob, and their two children.

Linda continues to be a valuable asset to the Scouting community.

Lawrence Proctor

Larry Proctor has been known to the scouting community since he became a Cubmaster for pack 516 from East Olive Elementary. He continued as Cubmaster through August of 1999, and now remains active in the Cub Scouting Program as a Trainer for the Migisin District. Today, Mr. Proctor is hands-on with Troop 77 out of Dewitt, where his son is also a member.

Taking the Scout motto of "Be Prepared" to heart, Larry became a Merit Badge Counselor for Emergency Preparedness, First Aid, Safety, Public Health, Public Speaking and Communications. Larry has helped to spread his expertise by holding CPR courses for the leaders of Troop 77, and helping with first aid Rank Advancements for First Class Scouts.

Outside of Scouting, Larry is the only staff member of the Michigan Career Training Institute in Owosso, and as such, teaches Adult Learners at a distance learning center/ computer lab. He also is an Outdoor Emergency Care Instructor for the National Ski Patrol, and is an active member of the Caseapea Peaks Ski Patrol.

Although Larry is involved in many different activities, he loves to spend time with his family. Larry and his wife Cassandra have one child, a son named John who is 16 years old and home schooled by Larry himself.

Larry is not only a friend, but a valued volunteer of the Chief Okemos Council.

Thomas Skelton

Thomas Skelton started his career with the Boy Scouts in Indiana ascending though the ranks of Cub Scout, Boy Scout, Venture Crew and ultimately Eagle Scout in 1964. After coming to Michigan, Tom joined with Troop 417 as a Committee Member and then Committee Chair in 1999. Tom also help lead the Troop when the Scoutmaster was out of commission due to cancer treatment. Tom has also helped with Wood badge, has been a Roundtable Representative, trained for Position Specific and has been on Outdoor Leader Skills staff every time he has been asked.

Some of Tom's recent activities include attending numerous OA events including two National Order of the Arrow Conferences. In 2006 he received the OA's Vigil Honor. Tom has also participated in Boundary Waters, the Warm is Good Winter Campout, Northwoods summer camp as an Adult Leader, volunteer cook at the Parent/Son II in 2003 and has been a constant volunteer helping in every aspect possible.

Tom continues to work in the computer industry as he has since 1973. He is now located at HiTech as a "Systems Architect Engineer". In his spare time he is a member of Lifeline Pilots (ask him about his trip during the October 1997 ice storm). He also takes the time to be a Chaperone on various school functions from grade school to high school,and assists with the school Bingo Fundraiser.

After all of his contributions and everything that he gives, Tom's number one priority is still his family. His wife Cathy and his sons Daniel and Andrew are all avid scouters.

Thank you Tom for all that you have given.
